Some people with whom the woman had been in contact were looking for her phone.

LATROVIE PROBES STORE DISASTER AS HOPES DIM OF SURVIVORS

Death toll mounts to 52

RIGA: Rescuers walk at the site of the Maxima supermarket in Riga yesterday, after the roof of the building collapsed. More than 100 people are feared to have been inside — and at least 14 people were confirmed dead, with a further 38 critically injured. Rescuers said there was no sign of life, and that the area remained unstable, causing difficulties in retrieving the injured. AFP

LAIOA: Indian women beaten, brainwashed in 30-year ordeal

Riga, Latvia November 24, 2013

Locals and residents of the southeastern Latvian city of Riga have described a shocking tale of abuse and manipulation after a 30-year-old woman was found bound and brainwashed in a local hospital. The woman, identified only as “Maria,” had been held in the hospital for nearly 30 years, where she was subjected to a torturous regime of brainwashing and control. AFP

Hotel rewards homeless man who turned in wallet

SOUTH KOREA: Last month, a South Korean lawyer had told Parliament that more should be done to help homeless people adapt to life in the South, and government data on suicides shows that about 1,000 homeless people die each year.

ATLANTA: His first name was Kenny, not John. Hartman said he didn’t think anything of it. He cried and gave Scott a hug. AP

KAMPALA: A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers. A former Catholic altar boy who fought alongside Lord’s Resistance Army rebel leader Joseph Kony has issued a warning to terror leaders across four countries. The Ugandan Army says it is planning to find the elusive rebel leader and will not give up until Joseph Kony has been brought to justice. The Ugandan government has said that the rebel leader is responsible for the abduction of hundreds of children and the recruitment of child soldiers.