Labor India, Managing director and principal visit Kuwait

Mr. Darsh Pai stands with a group of students.

Kulangara, a dream of his to travel all over Kerala with his students, collected water from the rivers and through water tests found that the water contained at least 100 percent results in contamination of river waters.

The academic year began with a work of charity. A house was constructed for a poor family in the village of Al-Arabiya.

The Labor India family organizes parents as well as grandparents' jubilee year is proud to celebrate.

Please note that the above text is a natural language representation of the content in the image, without any additional information or context provided by the system.