KAMCO celebrates national days with children at NBK Hospital

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

KUWAIT: Zain executives pictured with the company's employees during the national celebrations.

Zain celebrates national holidays with employees

Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, celebrated its national day recently. The event was attended by the company’s employees, who were honored with a festive gathering and a series of activities.

In a press statement, the company announced that the event was received with great participation and high feedback from its employees. The company also thanked its employees for their efforts and dedication, which have contributed to the success of the company.

In an interview, Zain’s CEO, Dr. Sana Al-Hadlaq, said: “The event was a great success, and we are grateful to all our employees for their hard work and dedication.”

The company also expressed its gratitude to its partners and suppliers, who have been instrumental in the company’s success.

KUWAIT: While police in Kuwait are investigating the circumstances behind the death of a seven-year-old boy, the family of the victim refused any comment until the autopsy report is released. According to a report published by Al- Kashef last week, the boy, who was found dead in his room on the third floor of his house, had been beaten to death with a metal rod. The boy’s mother, who is a prominent lawyer, said that she will not comment on the case until the autopsy report is released.

Quwairkha accident

A man died in a freak accident in Quwairkha north of Kuwait City. The man was found dead on the other side of the road where he was killed. The police said that the man, who was on a bicycle, had been hit by a car.

KAMCO celebrates national days with children at NBK Hospital

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

KUWAIT: The KAMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

Zain celebrates national holidays with employees

Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, celebrated its national day recently. The event was attended by the company’s employees, who were honored with a festive gathering and a series of activities.

In a press statement, the company announced that the event was received with great participation and high feedback from its employees. The company also thanked its employees for their efforts and dedication, which have contributed to the success of the company.

In an interview, Zain’s CEO, Dr. Sana Al-Hadlaq, said: “The event was a great success, and we are grateful to all our employees for their hard work and dedication.”

The company also expressed its gratitude to its partners and suppliers, who have been instrumental in the company’s success.

KUWAIT: While police in Kuwait are investigating the circumstances behind the death of a seven-year-old boy, the family of the victim refused any comment until the autopsy report is released. According to a report published by Al- Kashef last week, the boy, who was found dead in his room on the third floor of his house, had been beaten to death with a metal rod. The boy’s mother, who is a prominent lawyer, said that she will not comment on the case until the autopsy report is released.

Quwairkha accident

A man died in a freak accident in Quwairkha north of Kuwait City. The man was found dead on the other side of the road where he was killed. The police said that the man, who was on a bicycle, had been hit by a car.

KAMCO celebrates national days with children at NBK Hospital

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

Zain celebrates national holidays with employees

Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, celebrated its national day recently. The event was attended by the company’s employees, who were honored with a festive gathering and a series of activities.

In a press statement, the company announced that the event was received with great participation and high feedback from its employees. The company also thanked its employees for their efforts and dedication, which have contributed to the success of the company.

In an interview, Zain’s CEO, Dr. Sana Al-Hadlaq, said: “The event was a great success, and we are grateful to all our employees for their hard work and dedication.”

The company also expressed its gratitude to its partners and suppliers, who have been instrumental in the company’s success.

KUWAIT: While police in Kuwait are investigating the circumstances behind the death of a seven-year-old boy, the family of the victim refused any comment until the autopsy report is released. According to a report published by Al- Kashef last week, the boy, who was found dead in his room on the third floor of his house, had been beaten to death with a metal rod. The boy’s mother, who is a prominent lawyer, said that she will not comment on the case until the autopsy report is released.

Quwairkha accident

A man died in a freak accident in Quwairkha north of Kuwait City. The man was found dead on the other side of the road where he was killed. The police said that the man, who was on a bicycle, had been hit by a car.

KAMCO celebrates national days with children at NBK Hospital

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

Zain celebrates national holidays with employees

Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, celebrated its national day recently. The event was attended by the company’s employees, who were honored with a festive gathering and a series of activities.

In a press statement, the company announced that the event was received with great participation and high feedback from its employees. The company also thanked its employees for their efforts and dedication, which have contributed to the success of the company.

In an interview, Zain’s CEO, Dr. Sana Al-Hadlaq, said: “The event was a great success, and we are grateful to all our employees for their hard work and dedication.”

The company also expressed its gratitude to its partners and suppliers, who have been instrumental in the company’s success.

KUWAIT: While police in Kuwait are investigating the circumstances behind the death of a seven-year-old boy, the family of the victim refused any comment until the autopsy report is released. According to a report published by Al- Kashef last week, the boy, who was found dead in his room on the third floor of his house, had been beaten to death with a metal rod. The boy’s mother, who is a prominent lawyer, said that she will not comment on the case until the autopsy report is released.

Quwairkha accident

A man died in a freak accident in Quwairkha north of Kuwait City. The man was found dead on the other side of the road where he was killed. The police said that the man, who was on a bicycle, had been hit by a car.

KAMCO celebrates national days with children at NBK Hospital

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

KAMCO: The KMCO officials visiting the NBK Hospital.

Zain celebrates national holidays with employees

Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, celebrated its national day recently. The event was attended by the company’s employees, who were honored with a festive gathering and a series of activities.

In a press statement, the company announced that the event was received with great participation and high feedback from its employees. The company also thanked its employees for their efforts and dedication, which have contributed to the success of the company.

In an interview, Zain’s CEO, Dr. Sana Al-Hadlaq, said: “The event was a great success, and we are grateful to all our employees for their hard work and dedication.”

The company also expressed its gratitude to its partners and suppliers, who have been instrumental in the company’s success.