

DUO IN POLICE NET FOR JEWELRY THEFT

BEDOON HELD FOR MURDER ATTEMPT

By Hanan Al-Saadoun

KUWAIT: Nugra criminal detectives recently arrested a non-Kuwait and an Arab national for selling stolen golden jewelry, said security sources yesterday. Case papers indicate that a non-Kuwaiti was arrested while he was trying to sell stolen golden jewelry at a Salmiya jewelry shop. He led the police to his accomplice; an Arab national. Both suspects confessed that they had committed seven robberies and stolen many valuable items such as diamonds, golden jewelry and expensive watches. They also said that they sold some of the items and used the money for buying two vehicles and drugs. A case was filed and the suspects were referred to relevant authorities.

Murder attempt

A bedoon was arrested and detained at Taima police station for attempted murder, said security sources yesterday. Case papers indicate that a bedoon sustained several serious bone fractures when he was run over at Khuwaisat desert. The injured accused another bedoon of deliberately running him over and the latter was accordingly arrested.

Drug traders

Three citizens were arrested with the possession of drugs, said security sources noting that one of them was found already wanted for a five-year jail sentences.

Infiltration attempt

Border security forces recently arrested 19 people for cutting through the border barbed wires at the northern and southern border areas.

Naval exercise

With two interception speedboats onboard, Coastguard vessel 'Warba' recently sailed out of Sabah Al-Ahmed Coastguard Base heading to King Abdul Aziz port, Saudi Arabia to take part in the Gulf Peace 4 drill that is due to be held jointly with KSA and Bahrain from March 2 to 6. The delegation, headed by Abdul Rahamn Al-Rasheedi, was seen off by MOI's assistant undersecretary for border security, Maj Gen Sheikh Mohammed Al-Yousif Al-Sabah.

KRCS PLEDGES MORE AID FOR SYRIAN REFUGEES

BEIRUT: Kuwait Red Crescent Society is planning a new relief operation to aid hundreds of thousands of Syrians taking up refuge in Lebanon, announced the society delegate here.

The KRCS will launch, very soon, a new relief campaign to secure for the refugees food packages, clothing and housing, said Dr Musaed Al-Enezi, the society delegate to Lebanon in a statement.

Al-Enezi has just concluded a visit to Lebanon during which the society has distributed bread to the refugees and has offered kidney dialysis for those in need for the treatment among them.

He affirmed that the Kuwaiti philanthropic association would do its best and carry on with the relief action to help those who fled the violence in Syria. The KRCS, along with Kuwaiti charities and donors, has been aiding the Syrian refugees in Lebanon and other countries neighboring Syria.—KUNA
