STAR TRACK

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Being calm, cool and collected may take a lot of effort from you today as your energies may seem a bit high strung. Some of the circumstances that you find yourself in seem to create a great deal of competition. You are challenged by your own expectations yet you achieve more than you thought possible at this time. This may mean some athletic contest or possibly an art showing in the works. Rest at home this evening helps you to renew your energy and focus on your next goal. You may find yourself reading about the latest techniques or styles of other competitive people. Friendships and family members come to you via phone calls and you enjoy the communications. Learning new things and communicating them to others delights you.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Your independence will be showing today and you will find value in anything that is new, unusual or different. Your routine is beginning to wear a little thin and may have you looking for ways to change some things in your life. You want anything that is different for a change. Others should enjoy your company and you theirs-both in social and work situations. A superior could be coming to you to ask that you take on the responsibility for a particular job next week. You may be flattered but should give this some thought before you say yes too quickly. Some sort of compromise may be in order. You may find it easy to reflect and understand your own situation, just how you feel about yourself. This is a most pleasant day.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

You see a need to make some changes in some of the old habit patterns that have remained for such a long time. Variety can be the spice of life and may be essential to your progress and growth. Becoming complacent is conducive to staying in one place too long. Acquiring new information and expanding your way of doing things will be like a breath of fresh air-once you become acclimated to the changes you make. It's a really good time to get in touch with your inner self and really understand how you feel about who you are and what type of future changes you will want to be making. Your ideas are accepted and supported by loved ones. Change may be easier to handle than you had previously thought possible.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

A greater regard for things of value and even the idea of value itself is the order of the day. You may find yourself gaining materially, as it is a time when material things have a great deal of importance for you. You may find an interest in antiques or some type of art work as a hobby. Whatever you choose, it should appreciate in value over the years. One of your friends has a use for your talent and this may mean that you take out a contract to paint a picture or refinish a piece of furniture, etc. All of this should work out to your advantage. Your more reserved qualities are present and serve you very well. This is a very profitable time.

Leo (July 23-August 22)

You might like to pretend that your responsibilities do not exist. You want to go out and do some socializing, but the reality of the situation is probably going to insist that you take care of business and forget your buddies for the time being. Later this afternoon you make time for play. You love comfort and the interaction of friends. You may even find a friend's inquiries to be flattering and caring instead of meddlesome or prying. This afternoon you may cook up one of your specialties that you know your friends cannot resist. Harmony and balance with lots of enthusiasm creates warmth. You enjoy listening to others and their variety of conversations.

Virgo (August 23-September 22)

Anything uncommon or extraordinary will be what captures your interest. You may have always been interested in flying model airplanes but never actually did it. This is your day of opportunity to do some flying-or something similar. Allowing your creative and intuitive nature to awaken will be rewarding in many ways. New solutions to long-held problems may be but one of the benefits. Something very inventive may also surface. Allowing variety into your life is certainly a way to shake up the old routine. Change is inevitable, but in your case, it may be necessary for self-preservation. You do not allow yourself or your interests to stagnate or loose touch with what is happening in your world. Enjoy shopping this afternoon.

Libra (September 23-October 22)

You should find your timing almost perfect to do just about anything that your heart desires. Those around you should find you very natural and vital. Communicating and getting your message across to others is an important factor in your life just now. This is a really super time to be in the company of other people, personally and perhaps in a work situation. Your ability to manage and direct others puts you in a good situation to assume the responsibility for a special job. Someone in authority may be calling on you to make use of your talents. A truly sustained effort, along with your hand and eye coordination, makes just about any task run well. This is a great day for getting things accomplished. Emotions are existent but well within your control.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21)

You may find that there are some sensual needs that require additional attention, either your own or those of another. It's essential that you feel in total control of most situations in your life at this time. You will want to be the leader of your own band, in the literal sense-perhaps even the star performer. This could lead to some interesting encounters in healing and investing and possibly the mysterious aspects of life and death. After looking at some of your circumstances a little closer, you may observe the need to resort to some reorganization, being a little more conservative in the process. This should all work out for the positive. Your tendency to be a little more reserved is valuable just now. Love and appreciation surround you tonight.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21)

To feel cared for and needed is a comforting thing and to not feel this could cause you uneasiness. You will find that the relationships you hold closest are more important now. Being alone and lonely is just not your cup of tea just now-you need people around you to help reinforce the feeling of caring and sharing. You could easily find yourself looking for something in the romance department today, or at least finding enjoyment from friends. Your brilliant ideas can inspire others. Feelings and movement are appreciated. You could find a great deal of satisfaction from just getting out and about and walking or exercising. Your ability to communicate with others may be very strong at this time. Now is a most positive time.

Capricorn (December 22-January 19)

Modern thinking comes naturally to you. Use that inventive and innovative thinking of yours to create answers and thereby, you find many followers; perhaps you write or lead in some community organization. You can dispense with all that is unsound or superficial at this time and consider a new personal project. Your earning power is in an upward motion and you will find an opportunity to fund a special project soon-perhaps community oriented. This could be a positive move on your part and will increase your standing in the community. Spending quality time with loved ones takes priority all day. Share your goals and dreams with your loved ones. A big fun party is coming up soon.

Aquarius (January 20- February 18)

There is time this morning to enjoy the sunrise and a good breakfast. This is going to be a busy day. There is so much energy around you now, it cannot help but rub off on you. If you do not start a new project now-you will probably plan one. You enjoy solving a riddle, playing a word game or learning something new. When you choose a friend or a partner, you choose with your head as well as your heart. This makes for secure and loving relationships. Considering that your friends or family members will usually follow your lead, make your steps count. You are surrounded by some of your favorite people today. Plan something special to show them how much you care. Perhaps you will decide to have an impromptu party at your place.

Pisces (February 19-March 20)

This is a really happy time. You place value on that which is principled and forthright and have a particular dislike for things that are secret, intense or private. You may be helping someone today who had many difficulties. With your help, dramatically positive situations can develop. You may enjoy teaching others how to release emotional stress. People listen when you talk, because of your persuasiveness and eloquent way with words. Self-expression works well for you just now, lending itself to your ideas and thoughts. This is the day that you can get a special project off the ground. You have been involved in charity groups before, but now you seem to have the need to jump in with both feet. Special interest groups enhance your place in the community.
