KUWAITI IN SAUDI ARABIA EXPRESS SORROW AT KING’S DEPARTURE

KUWAITI: A number of Kuwaiti citizens living in Saudi Arabia voiced much sadness and sorrow over the demise of Saudi King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al-Saud. Interviewed by KUNA, they regarded the death of the Saudi King as a big loss to the Arab people but to Kuwaitis as well.

KUNA contacted some Kuwaiti citizens and relatives of the late King Abdullah, who all confirmed the news of his death, and expressed their gratitude and appreciation to the late king for his support, care and kindness towards the Kuwaiti citizens and services. Customers can also log on to the KPC website www.kpc.com.kw for more information or questions on Al Dana’s quarterly draw. For more information on the Al Danah account, visit www.aldanah.com or contact Customer Care Center on 1805 805 and the call charges will be borne by the Company. Customers can also send a SMS to 63167896 to get the SMS service.

PALESTINE LEADERS POSTPONE VISIT TO KUWAIT

RAMALLAH: Palestinian Prime Minister Rami Hamdallah said his government cannot postpone his visit to Kuwait, which was scheduled for the end of this week, due to the killing of King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, the late King of Saudi Arabia. Hamdallah said, pointing to the latest news about the late King Abdullah’s death on Friday, that the Palestinian government and its officials would continue with their ongoing plans and activities.”

The visit has been postponed because Palestinian Prime Minister Rami Hamdallah has announced an official mourning for the late King Abdullah, the Palestinian Prime Minister’s office said in a statement. It reported the late Saudi Monarch and his support of Palestine and the Arab cause.

Gulf Bank participates in Britain trade exhibition

KUWAIT: Gulf Bank recently sponsored the 18th Kuwaiti International Health, Safety and Environment Conference and Exhibition (KIHSE-2015) which took place at the Salmah Al-Ahmad Convention Center under the patronage and approval of His Highness the Amir Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah.

KUWAIT: With 50 confirmed speakers and a growing list of exhibitors, the Kuwait International Health, Safety and Environment Conference and Exhibition (KIHSE-2015) opened yesterday with a set of plenary sessions, to provide an in-depth coverage of the key topics related to the HSE fields.

The KUWAITI: The countdown to the 1st Quarterly Al Dana draw for 2015 has begun and only 6 days remain for cus- tomers to increase their deposits or to open an account by January 30th, to enhance their chances of win- ning and the 1st Quarterly Al Dana draw is to be held on February 6th.

Six days remaining to enter Al Dana’s quarterly draw

SAUDI ARABIA: Standing side-by-side in a brotherhood of grief, the Kuwaiti and Saudi Arabian leaderships showed on more than one occasion how deeply rooted the relations between the two countries are.

Alhamdi Governor expresses condolences over Saudi King’s death

KUWAIT: Alhamdi Governor Sheikh Fawaz Al-Khalifa Al-Sabah expressed condolences to the Government and people of Saudi Arabia on the death of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud.

KUWAITI: With more than 30 speakers and a growing list of exhibitors, the Kuwait International Health, Safety and Environment Conference and Exhibition (KIHSE-2015) opened yesterday with a set of plenary sessions, to provide an in-depth coverage of the key topics related to the HSE fields.

The plenary sessions will focus on the HSE in the region of the Middle East, which is the world’s largest oil industry; and will provide a platform to discuss strategic topics, including a new view by major regional CEOs on the importance of HSE matters. Each one of the three other tracks will set a few sessions on various topics such as HSE regulations in the Middle East.

The two-day meeting is to discuss and approve financial and administrative matters, in addition to reviewing ways to revive the Arab Peace Initiative with Israel, and discussing some issues on the future of the Middle East, current regional situations, and the Arab crisis, said in a press statement. He also added that other discussions include developing a roadmap for future of the Middle East including dimensions of the regional security and internal situation.

KUWAITI: Kuwaiti King Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah Friday condemned the death of King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud and lauded his great achievements in consolidating Arab and Islamic unity.

KUWAITI: Kuwaitis in Saudi Arabia express their sorrow at King’s departure

KUWAITI: Meanwhile, many development accomplishments made by the late Saudi Monarch were considered, as the leaders and the people of the two countries expressed their sorrow over his death, and wished their condolences to the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud.

KUWAITI: The late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud was buried in the greenest and photos of him were shown, and the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud and the late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud offered their deep condolences for the late King Abdullah’s death and praised the late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud for his efforts toward strengthening Arab and Muslim countries.

KUWAITI: The late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud was buried in the greenest and photos of him were shown, and the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud and the late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud offered their condolences for the late King Abdullah’s death and praised the late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud for his efforts toward strengthening Arab and Muslim countries.

KUWAITI: The late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud was buried in the greenest and photos of him were shown, and the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud and the late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud offered their condolences for the late King Abdullah’s death and praised the late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Saud for his efforts toward strengthening Arab and Muslim countries.