Bollywood star Aishwarya Rai Bachchan returns to cinema with ‘Jazbaa’

Aishwarya Rai Bachchan poses for photographs for the film ‘Jazbaa’.

The ever-present socialite and style icon donned a black gown and a matching hairdo to promote her upcoming film ‘Jazbaa’, an intense courtroom drama. The film, directed by Vishal Bhardwaj, also stars Irrfan Khan and is scheduled to release on October 23, 2015.

Rai Bachchan’s fans were treated to a glimpse of the star as she posed for the cameras, her black ensemble complemented by a bold red lip. The film, which is based on the Greek tragedy ‘Medea’, promises to be a thrilling ride for the audience.

In ‘Jazbaa’, Rai Bachchan plays the role of a vulnerable woman who is embroiled in a legal battle. The film is expected to showcase Rai Bachchan’s dramatic acting skills and is set against the backdrop of a complex legal system.

The cast and crew of the film were all praise for Rai Bachchan, with many describing her as a true icon of style and grace.

The film is produced by YRF (Yash Raj Films) and is scheduled to release on October 23, 2015. It is directed by Vishal Bhardwaj, who is known for his acclaimed films like ‘Maqbool’, ‘Woh Kaun Thi?’ and ‘Omkara’.

The film also stars Irrfan Khan, who is making a comeback after a five-year hiatus, and is expected to deliver a career-defining performance.

‘Jazbaa’ is a story of love, loss, and sacrifice, set against the backdrop of a complex legal system. The film promises to be a gripping watch, with Rai Bachchan’s presence adding to its appeal.

The film is produced by YRF (Yash Raj Films) and is scheduled to release on October 23, 2015. It is directed by Vishal Bhardwaj, who is known for his acclaimed films like ‘Maqbool’, ‘Woh Kaun Thi?’ and ‘Omkara’. The film also stars Irrfan Khan, who is making a comeback after a five-year hiatus, and is expected to deliver a career-defining performance.

The film is produced by YRF (Yash Raj Films) and is scheduled to release on October 23, 2015. It is directed by Vishal Bhardwaj, who is known for his acclaimed films like ‘Maqbool’, ‘Woh Kaun Thi?’ and ‘Omkara’.