STAR TRACK

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Although you can be quite generous in spirit when you so choose, you're an independent Ram and there are times when you simply forget about the needs of others. But partnerships require more bandwidth once the Sun takes up residence in your 7th House of Relationships today. Stop chasing your dreams long enough to consciously consider what someone else wants. Demonstrating respect to those around you shifts the energy and enables things to run much smoother than you ever expected. Life is meant to be shared.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

You might not be aware of how much others look up to you now, yet even little things you do strongly influence them. However, you could be less concerned with anyone else's perceptions than you are with completing your chores today. It's tempting to narrow your vision to concentrate on maintaining your regular routine while the Sun inhabits your 6th House of Habits. But don't let your current obsession with the details get in the way of being fully present for your friends and family. Honor your core values and everything will work out for the best.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

You're not in a very practical mood today, so it's wise to enjoy your colorful fantasies without trying to manifest them into reality. Luckily, there's nothing wrong with escaping into your daydreams for a little while; this harmless reverie can even provide inspirational food for thought. Just make sure you remain aware of the difference between the idle wanderings of your imagination and what's actually expected of you in the real world. Don't miss your chance to dance on the creative edge while the Sun is shining in your 5th House of Self-Expression.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

Nothing brings you more pleasure now than hanging out in your castle with those you love. The Sun's current visit to your 4th House of Roots turns your attention inward and sets a nostalgic tone. Ironically, you might even consider traveling — in the real world or in your imagination — all the way back to the place of your origins. However, this isn't just a walk down memory lane; engaging in serious self-reflection strengthens your foundation for the months ahead. Learning something meaningful about your past inspires you to be more successful in the future.

Leo (July 23-August 22)

Your calendar is filling up quickly and life seems to be running at a faster pace now that the Sun is lighting up your 3rd House of Immediate Environment. But complications arise if you can't manage your time effectively because your tight schedule is quite unforgiving today. Don't get flustered if you fall behind or miss a step; just be honest with everyone affected and continue to do the best you can to be in several places at once. Your heroic efforts are appreciated more than you know.

Virgo (August 23-September 22)

Your ambivalence over a fundamental issue can make a particular decision rather difficult. Unfortunately, a new wave of confusion may sour your actions with doubt and uncertainty as the Sun slips into your 2nd House of Values. Thankfully, there's no need to change your mind or alter your plans today, especially if you're unsure of your options. Hang tight; your confidence will rebound before you know it. In the meantime, sorting through all of your alternatives now gives you the best chance to make the right choice at the right moment.

Libra (September 23-October 22)

Your mental clarity is razor sharp now as the brilliant Sun sets up shop in your creative sign. You're capable of making intelligent decisions that are based upon your keen sense of objectivity. However, your thinking is likely to change again with retrograde Mercury also camping out in Libra. Fortunately, sentimentality won't likely lead you off course today. Accept subjective artistic leanings as lovely inspirations brightening your day; incorporate what you can and leave the rest for another time.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21)

Although this may not be what you want to hear today, there's no reason to waste your precious energy and limited resources on starting anything new now. The radiant Sun's shift into your 12th House of Endings is a powerful reminder to complete current projects and tie up as many loose ends as possible. Keeping a low profile allows you to focus on the more spiritual aspects of your life. There are many treasures to discover in other dimensions if you are willing to suspend your disbelief and let your imagination wander.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21)

Your friends and associates may be nearly impossible to read today, leaving you uncertain about where they fit in your current plans. Unfortunately, your ideas might not be as clear as you think, creating problems you haven't even considered. But don't blame your lack of confidence on anyone else or you will just drift further away from your goals. Accepting responsibility for your actions now inspires you to take matters into your own hands. Mahatma Gandhi advised, "Be the change that you wish to see in the world."

Capricorn (December 22-January 19)

All you can think about now is your career as you ambitiously plan for your future. Fortunately, your professional objectives may be clearly illuminated during the weeks ahead as the Sun travels through your 10th House of Public Responsibility. However, your preoccupation with work can strain your personal life as fulfilling your obligations distracts you from cultivating emotional connections. Establishing a healthy balance in your life is more important than reaching some imagined pinnacle of success. Humans can not live on bread alone.

Aquarius (January 20-February 18)

You are strongly drawn in two distinct directions now as the Sun brightens fellow air sign Libra. Additionally, the Moon's return to your futuristic sign adds an emotional twist to an intellectual problem today. Still, your primary challenge is to remain optimistic without losing touch with reality. Deepening a close connection with someone you trust inspires you to keep your dreams alive. Author and activist Helen Keller declared, "Walking with a friend in the dark is better than walking alone in the light."

Pisces (February 19-March 20)

You may be uncomfortable with the information imbalance today if someone shares too many personal details and you don't say anything in return. No matter how pressing the situation seems now, there's a part of you that doesn't want to deal with the drama. Although you might actually believe that whatever you don't know can't hurt you, it's simply not the case. Even unexpressed thoughts create ripples in the atmosphere, so it's smarter to ask questions and listen to the rest of the story when someone asks for your advice. The only way to have a friend is to be one.
