GERMAN MINISTRY SEES POSSIBLE DELAY IN SENDING MISSILE DEFENSE CONTRACT

LUXEMBOURG: Germany may not be able to sign a missile defense contract with the United States by the end of this year, the foreign minister's spokesman said on Tuesday.

The document, dated July 8 and sent by email, is available to comment on the ministry's decision to send it to Italy.

Germany's defense minister, Ursula von der Leyen, told Reuters on Tuesday that the US had asked for more information about the missile defense contract with the US.

Germany and the US have been discussing the contract for several years, but the German government has been draggin...
