DALAI LAMA ACCUSES CHINA OF FOoling ITS PEOPLE

TAWANG TOWN: The Dalai Lama said Tuesday that Beijing has taken steps to coordinate with the OSS. He added that it had been helpful to the Dalai Lama to hear from some leaders who have visited Beijing, but he has yet to hear from the Chinese government. The Dalai Lama had said in a previous statement that he was not sure when he would return to Tibet,

After addressing devotees at the monastery, one of the leaders of Tibet, Tenzin Dhonden, who heads the Dalai Lama's office in Washington, accused Beijing of creating an "artificial world." He added that New Delhi has a "clear" policy of not recognizing Beijing as the capital of Tibet and "has negotiated with the Chinese government to coordinate with the OSS." The Dalai Lama has been under house arrest since 1991, after being forced to leave Tibet by Beijing. He has not visited Tibet since 1995, and his whereabouts are unknown. The Dalai Lama has said that he will not visit Tibet until the Chinese government agrees to a "clear" policy of not recognizing Beijing as the capital of Tibet.

TRUMP DITCHES HIS TRADITIONAL APPROACH TO CHINA BOMBAST, BASHING IN U.S.-CHINA SUMMIT, TRUMP PRESSES ON N KOREA

PALM BEACH: President Donald Trump made it clear that the US will continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

US Sends Message to N Korea and Its Conflicting with Syria

SEOUL: The US missile strike on Syria contained a clear message for North Korea and its neighbors: The US stance on nuclear proliferation is not just for show. The strike, which was in response to the killing of a Jordanian pilot by a Syrian air force jet, was the latest in a series of American military actions that have raised the specter of a potential US attack on North Korea.

And exercising the military option against Tehran would be a threat to the entire region, said David Ignatius, a national security analyst at The Washington Post.

The US missile strike on Syria contained a clear message for North Korea and its neighbors: The US stance on nuclear proliferation is not just for show. The strike, which was in response to the killing of a Jordanian pilot by a Syrian air force jet, was the latest in a series of American military actions that have raised the specter of a potential US attack on North Korea.

MAGNUSON: No. 38, 2017 NEWS

MANILA: Three strong earthquakes rocked a coastal region in the northern Philippines, causing panic and minor damage.

The quakes, which struck Tuesday, caused some buildings to shake and cracked plaster walls. There were no immediate reports of damage or casualties. The Philippine Institute of Volcanology and Seismology, which monitors earthquakes in the Philippines, said the quakes were not expected to cause any significant damage.

Plain text:

Diplomatic editorials on the grounds of an office building in the financial district of Mandaluyong in Manila yesterday, after the military conflict between China and South Korea.

Quakes hit Philippines

MAGNUSON: Three strong earthquakes rocked a coastal region near the Philippine capital within half an hour of each other yesterday, causing panic and minor damage. The Philippine Institute of Volcanology and Seismology, which monitors earthquakes in the Philippines, said the quakes were not expected to cause any significant damage.

Gay men face coming-out crisis

BANGLADESH: Gay men and transgender people are facing a coming-out crisis in the country's capital.

The situation is particularly tough for transgender people, who face discrimination and violence. In recent years, there have been several cases of transgender people being gang-raped or killed. The situation is particularly tough for transgender people, who face discrimination and violence. In recent years, there have been several cases of transgender people being gang-raped or killed.

Plain text:

Dispute over ‘right to die’ reemerges in Japan

BYERLY: Japan’s Supreme Court upheld a lower court’s decision that granted a terminally ill woman the right to die. The case, which was argued in front of the court in December, was the first of its kind in Japan.

The court ruled that the lower court’s decision was justified, upholding the “right to die” principle. The court argued that the right to die is a fundamental right, and that it is a personal decision that should be respected. The court ruled that the lower court’s decision was justified, upholding the “right to die” principle. The court argued that the right to die is a fundamental right, and that it is a personal decision that should be respected.

Plain text:

Protest rocks Senegal

Dakh: Thousands of people took to the streets of the Senegalese capital Dakar on Friday to protest against the government’s decision to ban the sale of alcohol.

The protest, which was organized by the National Union of Senegalese Working Class, was the latest in a series of protests against the government’s policies in the country.

Plain text:

RAISIN: A statement of intent that was meant for a Chinese audience was made public over the weekend in the absence of a Chinese government official.

The statement, which was made by Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs David L. Stilwell, was a response to a recent decision by China to reject a request by the US to hold a joint military exercise in the South China Sea. The statement was made public over the weekend in the absence of a Chinese government official. The statement, which was made by Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs David L. Stilwell, was a response to a recent decision by China to reject a request by the US to hold a joint military exercise in the South China Sea.

Plain text:

FILHA BEGUM: A 35-year-old woman was burned to death by her husband in a northern Indian town.

The woman was allegedly set on fire by her husband because she had refused to have sex with him. The husband reportedly told police that he was angry because the woman had refused to have sex with him.

Plain text:

PALM BEACH: President Donald Trump made it clear that the US will continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

Plain text:

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

Plain text:

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

Plain text:

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

Plain text:

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.

TRUMP, (in Korean), said the US would continue to pressure North Korea, even as he sought to mend ties with its neighbor. The president said he would not be surprised if the North Korean regime were to collapse in the near future.