Amir receives latest from Sheikh Tamim

KUWAIT: His Highness the Amir Sheikh Sabah al- Ahmad al-Jaber al-Sabah received a confidential report from His Highness the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani of Qatar prior to the new GCC summit. The two leaders exchanged views on regional developments and the latest developments in the Gulf region. Sheikh Tamim will attend the 29th Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) summit in Kuwait in the coming days. The meeting was attended by Deputy Minister of Amiri Diwan Affairs, Sheikh Nahayan Al-Mohammad Al-Sabah.

Gulf Cooperation Council Summit: An event of important resolutions

KUWAIT: The Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) Summit which began in Kuwait last night will focus on mechanisms to safeguard the security and safety of GCC states by creating a unified military corporation in the Gulf region. The aim is to form a unified military front to defend the security of GCC states. At the beginning of the summit, the leaders called on Iraq to abide by the decision. In 1993, the Riyadh summit called for Iraq to abide by the decision. The GCC summit in 1993 approved a resolution to send the forces of Peninsula Shield in March 2011, which played a major role in confronting the Israeli military assault.

GCC achievements in all domains since inception

KUWAIT: The thirty-year history of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) has witnessed great achievements in various fields, which have reflected in the Gulf states and achieved its aspirations on all economic, political, military and security levels, and on the regional and international arena. Through these achievements, the Council has been able to form a strong framework for cooperation: a common security and a means to protect the achievements of the states and address the threats they face and to play an effective role in addressing the challenges the countries face. The GCC has persevered to achieve the interests of the region and to bring its states closer to each other.
