Kuwait, Saudi agree on economic diversification: Sheikh Nasser

Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah

Kuwait, Saudi Arabia have agreed on economic diversification. The agreement was reached during a meeting between Kuwaiti Premier and Defense Minister Prince Mohammad bin Salman and his Saudi counterpart, Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah. The meeting was held in the Saudi capital, Riyadh.

Both sides discussed issues of mutual concern and ways ofbolstering cooperation between the two countries. They agreed on the importance ofeconomic diversification and the need for further coordination and cooperation in various sectors.

Prince Mohammad bin Salman praised the strong political and economic ties between Kuwait and Saudi Arabia. He emphasized the need for continued cooperation in the fields oftrade, investment, and infrastructure.

Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah welcomed the steps taken by both countries to strengthen their partnership and expressed confidence in the prospects for further development and cooperation.

The meeting was attended by officials from both sides, and it was agreed to continue consultations and coordination on issues of common interest. The leaders also expressed their readiness to support efforts aimed at achieving regional peace and stability.

---

Horeca 2018 to be held from January 15 to 17

The Kuwaiti Cabinet has approved a deal to organize the Horeca 2018 exhibition at Seif Palace, which is expected to foster trade and investment opportunities in the hospitality sector.

The Horeca (Hotel, Restaurant, Cafe, Catering and Edible Items) International Exhibition is one of the prominent events in Kuwait, attracting local and international companies to showcase their products and services.

The exhibition will be held from January 15 to 17, and it is expected to bring together thousands of visitors, including trade professionals, investors, and the general public.

---

Secondhand furniture stores closed

Kuwait

The Kuwaiti Cabinet has decided to close secondhand furniture stores in the country. The decision was taken in light of the need to ensure public health and safety, prevent the spread of diseases, and maintain cleanliness and order in the areas where these stores are located.

The Cabinet adopted a draft decree to this effect, which will be submitted to the parliament for ratification. The decree will come into effect immediately.

The cabinet noted that secondhand furniture stores have been a source of concern for some time, as they are often prone to storing hazardous materials and posing health risks to the public. The cabinet called on local authorities to enforce the decision and take the necessary steps to ensure compliance.

---

Kuwait Cabinet sends Caral deal to anti-graft commission

The Kuwaiti Cabinet has referred a recent media report about the Caral distribution deal to the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACA).

The report, which was published in recent days, accused the government of inflating the contract price and benefiting from kickbacks.

The cabinet also called for the formation of an expert committee to investigate the matter and provide recommendations to the anti-graft commission.

---

Awqaf Minister says agenda fits into development plans

The Kuwaiti Cabinet has approved a draft decree to close all secondhand furniture stores in the country. The decree was signed by the Cabinet and will be submitted to the parliament for ratification.

The Cabinet took the decision after receiving a report from the Kuwaiti Ministry of Awqaf and Islamic Affairs revealing that the “Ministry of Awqaf and Islamic Affairs has been among the first institutions in the Arab world in initiating and implementing such strategic planning.”

The Ministry’s initiatives have been aimed at addressing the challenges faced by the country and ensuring the sustainable development of the nation.

The Cabinet noted that the Ministry has played a key role in promoting Islamic values and traditions, as well as promoting national development and economic growth.

The Ministry has been working closely with local and international organizations to implement various projects and initiatives aimed at achieving the goals of the national development plan.

The Cabinet commended the Ministry’s efforts and thanked all its partners and stakeholders for their support and cooperation.

---

Horeca 2018

Kuwait Times

Horeca 2018 is a prominent event in Kuwait, attracting local and international companies to showcase their products and services. The event is expected to foster trade and investment opportunities in the hospitality sector.

The exhibition will be held from January 15 to 17 at Seif Palace, and it is expected to bring together thousands of visitors, including trade professionals, investors, and the general public.

The event will feature a wide range of products and services related to the hospitality industry, including hotel and restaurant equipment, kitchenware, and other supplies.

The Horeca exhibition is organized by the Kuwaiti Ministry of Commerce and Industry and the Kuwaiti Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

The event aims to attract visitors from different countries and regions, providing them with an opportunity to network, learn about new trends and technologies, and explore business opportunities.

---

Secondhand furniture stores closed

Kuwait

The Kuwaiti Cabinet has decided to close all secondhand furniture stores in the country. The decision was taken in light of the need to ensure public health and safety, prevent the spread of diseases, and maintain cleanliness and order in the areas where these stores are located.

The Cabinet adopted a draft decree to this effect, which will be submitted to the parliament for ratification. The decree will come into effect immediately.

The cabinet noted that secondhand furniture stores have been a source of concern for some time, as they are often prone to storing hazardous materials and posing health risks to the public. The cabinet called on local authorities to enforce the decision and take the necessary steps to ensure compliance.

---

Secondhand furniture stores closed

Kuwait

The Kuwaiti Cabinet has decided to close all secondhand furniture stores in the country. The decision was taken in light of the need to ensure public health and safety, prevent the spread of diseases, and maintain cleanliness and order in the areas where these stores are located.

The Cabinet adopted a draft decree to this effect, which will be submitted to the parliament for ratification. The decree will come into effect immediately.

The cabinet noted that secondhand furniture stores have been a source of concern for some time, as they are often prone to storing hazardous materials and posing health risks to the public. The cabinet called on local authorities to enforce the decision and take the necessary steps to ensure compliance.