KUWAIT: As part of its commitment towards promoting health and fitness, and promoting a healthier lifestyle, the Kuwait International Bank (KIB) recently sponsored the 3rd charity campaign organized by Wafaa Fitzsimons entitled ‘Snatch for a Cause’ campaign which took place on the premises of the Wataniya General Branch. The local community and its partners, the campaign was aimed at supporting children and families within the local community.

An expert of the sport, a charity sports event was held at the club’s main premises. Over 350 participants of all ages and from both genders came together to compete in various weightlifting exercises, including snatch lifts and various lifting routines. The participants were able to channel their physical strength and determination for the benefit of the community, as with every kilogram of weight lifted, one dollar was donated to the Kuwaiti Food Bank. The charity campaign also featured a special family event for those in need, in which those participants of a large number of young volunteers from across the community.

Within this context, Nawaf Al-Salim, Manager of the Corporate Communications Unit at KIB, commented: “We are very proud to promote this event in its unique and exciting fit- ness manner, which not only raises public awareness of the importance in an engaging, social context, but also supports children’s health and called medical treatment. This year, the Bank is keen on promoting a greater sense of health consciousness across the local community and for that reason, we continuously seek initiatives that allow us to better support initiatives of different segments across the community. During the campaign, the Bank organized a wide range of health programs and activities during Ramadan. Additionally, the Bank is committed to raising awareness about health programs and various local sports activities, particularly those that support different segments across the community. NBK Sponsors ‘Snatch For A Cause’ Charity Campaign.

KIB HONORS WINNERS OF ITS RAMADAN QURAN MEMORIZATION COMPETITION.

KUWAIT: Under the umbrella of its leading Corporate Communications Unit, the Kuwait International Bank (KIB) recently concluded its annual Quran Memorization Competition. The competition was held for KIB staff and their children, as well as the children of KIB customers, and took place during the Holy Month of Ramadan. The awards ceremony was held under the patronage of the General Manager of Wataniya General Branch, Mr. Al-Salim and, Acting Chief Executive Officer, Deputy and Chief Executive Officer, Mohamed Sadaf Eld-Sa. In this context, Wafaa Najim, Manager of the Corporate Communications Unit at KIB, commented: “This year’s competition was held at our head office, under the theme ‘the best of you are those who learn within the community, noting that it remains one of the most important initiatives of the Bank during the Holy Month. Najim ended the ceremony with a keihark’s expression of the Bank’s keenness on organizing the Quran competition annually during the Holy month of Ramadan.”

KIB SPONSORS ‘SNATCH FOR A CAUSE’ CHARITY CAMPAIGN.

KUWAIT: KIB International Airport reported a 6.6% increase in the number of passengers flying abroad within the Eid Al-Adha holidays period. During the approximately 135 holiday running on Friday which was expected to hit the 43,400 mark, the General Director of Civil Aviation, Dr. Ayad Al-Ashqar, deputy director general of international civil aviation in Kuwait International airport, said: “The number is a difference to the 141,300 travelers recorded in 2016, according to the data of the airport, during the festive occasion which marks the end of the Holy Islamic lunar month of Ramadan. A significant factor in this increase is the response by the travelers as they preferred this holiday over the Eid Al-Adha. The three day occasion gives the pilgrims the ability to travel abroad could also stretch to 16 days. A focus is ongoing to continue this initiative for another one or two days, which was a trend seen in the current year. The increase in the three days occasion during Eid Al-Adha could also stretch to 16 days. A focus is ongoing to continue this initiative for another one or two days, over 300 participants of all ages taking part in this unique and exciting competition.”

KUWAIT: Kuwait International Bank (KIB) recently launched a program entitled ‘Snatch for a Cause’ charity campaign and a project to distribute prayer essentials to Kuwait’s mosques. The Bank, through its sponsorship of the project, is looking to promote religious values and principles within the community, noting that it remains one of the most important initiatives of the Bank during the Holy Month. The Mosque of the Great Nuri is located in the city of Mosul. The general operation was under the leadership of the council and the Ministry of Religious Affairs, and is the largest mosque in Iraq and one of the oldest in the world. The council is entrusted with the care of the mosque. This is why it is an important goal of the campaign to make sure that the mosque is protected and cared for, as it is a symbol of the city of Mosul and a symbol of the entire Iraqi people." The Mosque of the Great Nuri is located in the city of Mosul. The general operation was under the leadership of the council and the Ministry of Religious Affairs, and is the largest mosque in Iraq and one of the oldest in the world. The council is entrusted with the care of the mosque. This is why it is an important goal of the campaign to make sure that the mosque is protected and cared for, as it is a symbol of the city of Mosul and a symbol of the entire Iraqi people."