Mobi Modasts for Hearts and Minds in India's Holy City

News

INTERNATIONAL
TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 2017

LONDON: High fees are on display in a store in London. British lawmakers are due to debate banning mandatory minimum prices for alcohol. An earlier response to a petition started by a restaurant worker who was fined for selling drinks for less than the bar’s entry-level fee in a non-binding debate in Parliament.

As of press file photo, Pakistan Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif (left) and Chinese President Xi Jinping shake hands before their meeting at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing, China. Pakistani leaders were offered on Tuesday a glimpse into Beijing’s plans for Pakistan.

MODI MATES FOR HEARTS AND MINDS IN INDIA'S HOLY CITY

Frustrated US policymakers see Pakistan as terrorist haven

Pakistani opposition party leader and son of the slain former prime minister Benazir Bhutto, Bilawal Bhutto Zardari, labels the government’s anti-terror campaign as a daylight robbery in a statement.

As India faces elections, analysts say it is too close to call

Chorey is not a barrier: Elderly women in India's Madhya Pradesh province are running for office now. But they do want to be able to read and write, according to community leaders who are running a school for elderly women who have not gone to school.

Age is not a barrier: Elderly Indian women go to school

At 68 years old, Shinde said. "We have arrested the victim's husband, who are seen as breadwinners. — AFP

Five Pakistan troops and 10 militants die in border raid

Chairwoman of Phangane village in India's Maharashtra state usually wakes up at 4 a.m. and helps local women to work in the cotton fields. She has also taken to teaching elderly women to read and write, as part of an unlikely alliance to develop India's coastal region.

Indian prime minister will not be getting his vote when

The unlikely alliance is a critical part of China's ambitious plan to form a "One Belt, One Road" network of transport links across the globe, designed to increase access to markets and resources.

BEIJING: In this file photo, Pakistani Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif (left) and Chinese President Xi Jinping shake hands before their meeting at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing, China. Pakistani leaders were offered on Tuesday a glimpse into Beijing’s plans for Pakistan.

Pakistani opposition party leader and son of the slain former prime minister Benazir Bhutto, Bilawal Bhutto Zardari, labels the government’s anti-terror campaign as a daylight robbery in a statement.

Five Pakistani soldiers and 10 militants die in border raid

On Tuesday, 11 Malian soldiers were killed in an attack on border base

BAMAKO: At least 11 soldiers were killed in an attack on a border base, according to a Malian general, who said they were wounded five more, according to an official toll from the border village of Boulekessi killed 11 troops and wounded 110, according to a source in the Malian interior ministry.

BAMAKO: Malian security officials said on Tuesday that the head of a cell planning attacks against Israeli targets "has been neutralized by the Malian army in the city of Gao". The attack is seen as part of a broader trend of violence against military targets.

Pakistan is reportedly deploying 15,000 forces to protect nuclear sites if war breaks out

Pakistan is already deploying 15,000 forces to protect nuclear sites if war breaks out. But the nuclear sector is vulnerable, according to officials, who said the country is lack of security and protection.

Five Pakistani soldiers and 10 militants die in border raid

Pakistan and the UN have called on both sides to stop fighting and negotiate an immediate cease-fire, but the government in Islamabad is ready to take military action to stop the violence.

Pakistan is reportedly deploying 15,000 forces to protect nuclear sites if war breaks out

Pakistan is already deploying 15,000 forces to protect nuclear sites if war breaks out. But the nuclear sector is vulnerable, according to officials, who said the country is lack of security and protection.

Hindu city in Uttar Pradesh rather than his

"He doesn't understand Varanasi, " complained a local resident. "He doesn't know the streets, the history, the people."

The Indian prime minister will not be getting his vote when

As of press file photo, Pakistan Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif (left) and Chinese President Xi Jinping shake hands before their meeting at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing, China. Pakistani leaders were offered on Tuesday a glimpse into Beijing’s plans for Pakistan.

India police find 19 female fetuses diced in sweater

Indian police said they had found 19 dismembered bodies of female fetuses in a sweater in a forest near the city of Karimnagar, a state that borders the southern state of Telangana.

At least 11 soldiers were killed in an attack on a border base, according to a Malian general, who said they were wounded five more, according to an official toll from the border village of Boulekessi killed 11 troops and wounded 110, according to a source in the Malian interior ministry.

Pakistan is already deploying 15,000 forces to protect nuclear sites if war breaks out. But the nuclear sector is vulnerable, according to officials, who said the country is lack of security and protection.

Hindu city in Uttar Pradesh rather than his

"He doesn't understand Varanasi, " complained a local resident. "He doesn't know the streets, the history, the people."