It was 40 years ago that I co-founded the Palestine Center in Washington, D.C. to advocate for a just peace between Israel and the Palestinians. It was 40 years ago that I co-founded the American Council on Arab Affairs to fight against the hatred and lies against the Palestinian people.

Roosevelt, who had been an advocate for civil rights in his own time, and found inspiration in the story of Harriet Tubman, who also fought for women to have rights in the United States. The new story of Harriet Tubman will be told as a symbol of the rights of all people, no matter their race or gender.
