KUWAIT:

KUWAIT: The Capital Markets (KM) Company (KAMCO), a leading investment company in Kuwait, has been awarded the ‘Best Wealth Management Company’ trophy in the State of Kuwait. The KM Company yesterday, attended by representatives of foreign companies, investment companies, banks, employees and other related staff, said Dr. Nayef Al-Hajraf, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of KM, welcomed the attendees, saying: KM fulfilled its promise to hold this conference annually in the same period. This is the second state conference held by KM, the first quarter of the year last year to discuss the most important issues related to KM’s data and stock exchange activities. Tsed said: "Despite the fact that last year and many new local stock exchange activities have taken place. During the previous conference, we announced our intention to develop the capital market, which cannot be executed without compliance with international standards and adopting proper procedures," he said.

Brusa Kuwait

"Last year, our company introduced a new service and launched a package of services through a participation in a show called "Brusa" according to private sector rules, and since December 2015, it has been working to consolidate its position in the Capital Markets (KM) Company. Another significant event was presented by John Turner, the CEO, of XBRL Based Electronic Filing Platform. It was accompanied by a number of presentations in this session - Khaled Al-Khaled, Chairman of the Intermediary Activities Department of the Capital Markets Authority, said: "The conference sheds light on the achievements of the applications with applied international standards, in addition to the future plans and the measures that can be taken to ensure proper goals. The strategic plans of KM set the base for a regional leader in the capital market, which is not limited to its current status. The conference is intended to discuss the most important topics related to stock exchange and the potential impacts of the new law."

KAMCO's role in becoming one of the leaders in the investment industry, KAMCO has successfully established a robust reputation for solidarity, character, and professionalism in the investment philosophy and spirit of trans-