KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: Kuwait International Bank (KIB), a leading Kuwait-based institution, supported Kuwaiti initiatives and activities that reflect the happiness into their lives.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Health (MoH) has recently organized a visit to the Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor's Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: Kuwait International Bank (KIB), a leading Kuwait-based institution, supported Kuwaiti initiatives and activities that reflect the happiness into their lives.

Ministry hiring teachers to cover shortages

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education said adding “petroleum studies” to school curricula in the future is crucial for the benefit of future generations.

KUWAIT: Kuwait International Bank (KIB) recently organized a visit to the Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the importance of investing in oil for the benefit of future generations,” she noted — KUSA.

Zain launches fourth edition of Zain Great Idea (ZGI) Boot Camp

Over 130 entrepreneurs submitted their ideas

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading telecommunications company in Kuwait, announced the launch of the fourth phase of its Zain Great Idea (ZGI) accelerator program in its fourth edition, the ZGI Boot Camp. The program aims at identifying and fostering hi-tech entrepreneurs in Kuwait.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Social Affairs and Labor’s Elderly Care Center, to celebrate the International Day of Older Persons with the elderly residents. The visit came as part of an Open Day for residents, and featured several fun activities that are designed to give back to all the older generations in particular as an integral part of our society, and celebrating them on this day is just a small way in which we can show them our gratitude.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Education, by the Ministry of Oil plans on adding "petroleum studies" to school curricula in the future, said the ministry’s public relations acting Director- General Sheikha Tamader in a press statement yesterday, on the occasion of 15 years since the launch of the ministry’s petroleum education project. The ministry “wants to spread awareness on the important