Local

Time to return

By Abdullah Al Jumail

As young people are hungry for football and like what they see in large numbers to attend the derby match between Al-Arabi and Al-Qadisiya clubs, hoping to see a good game.

The large number of fans in the first match of the Kuwaiti league is a serious official move.

VIVA organizes blood donation day

KUWAIT: In partnership with Kuwait Central Blood Bank, VIVA, Kuwait’s fastest-growing and most-developed telecom operator, organized Blood Donation Day at its headquarters in Olympic Tower. This initiative is part of VIVA’s corporate social responsibility (CSR) program and corporate commitment to support community initiatives to help save lives and endorse good health practices among its staff.

Blood donor’s rights and blood care: The blood donated by the donors during the days were added to the blood bank’s reserve to support its blood drive initiatives. The medical team also communicated important messages to donors about the importance of regular blood donation.

Smoke inhalation

A citizen and his friend were arrested for assaulting a security guard at a hospital in Kuwait City. The assault was committed on the premises of a local hospital.

Janitor assaulted

A lawyer filed a case against an Arab woman, accusing her of taking KD 6,000 from his client to start a fake project.

Fake project

A lawyer filed a case against an Arab woman, accusing her of taking KD 6,000 from his client to start a fake project.

Mugging

An Asian man was assaulted and robbed by three assailants in Kuwaiti main security sources. A case was filed and investigations are underway to determine the cause of the fight.

CRIMES

Rescuers stop maid from committing suicide

KUWAIT: An Egyptian housemaid was stopped from committing suicide at her sponsor’s house in Ahmadi and sent for treatment after she was rushed to the hospital. The maid tried to commit suicide after she had hung her head on the wall several times in a historical building.

Smoke inhalation

Three children suffered from smoke inhalation when a fire broke out in a building in Ahmadi. The fire was extinguished after firefighters succeeded in stopping the fire from spreading.

Health

VIVA, in cooperation with Breast Cancer Awareness Month, organized blood donation campaigns among its employees and at its premises.

KIB sponsors Al-Sidra Association’s breast cancer awareness campaign

KUWAIT: Kuwait International Bank (KIB) announced its sponsorship of the awareness campaign organized by Al-Sidra Association for Psychological Care of Cancer Patients, which is taking place throughout the month of October. This sponsorship comes as part of the Bank’s compassionate breast cancer awareness campaign, as well as its long-standing strategy partnership with Al-Sidra Association.

This latest sponsorship covers a series of medical seminars, lectures organized by Al-Sidra Association, which are aimed at educating women about the importance of early detection in breast cancer prevention, and which are being held on the premises of Al-Sidra Association and Kuwait University. As part of the campaign, Al-Sidra Association will also participate in activities organized by the State Audit Bureau and Kuwait University, such as seminars, workshops and other activities and initiatives within the community aimed at promoting breast cancer awareness.

Rationalization

Many such people live and many of us got fooled by them

Many people who were supposed to make a move looking like balloons are so silly and superficial that they are only concerned with appearances and are capable of enhancing such false images to conceal their shallow limitations and lack of potentials.

Smoke inhalation

Such kids-like people may confound you as you would expect too much from them and create an image about them that soon appears to be false, showing how shallow and shallow they are. Many such people live around us and part of us.

Work mishap

An Egyptian construction worker was rushed to hospital in Ahmadi after he was injured during work.

Mugging

An Asian man was assaulted and robbed by three assailants in Kuwaiti main security sources. A case was filed and investigations are underway to determine the cause of the fight.