Barcelona & Madrid’s hopes for more Salah magic

Liverpool fans were in unbridled jubilation on Sunday afternoon as Mohamed Salah completed a sensational Supercup hat-trick in Barcelona’s crucial 2-1 win over Sevilla in Tanger, Morocco.

The 28-year-old Egyptian superstar, on target twice in the victory over his old Champions League rival, made it six goals in a row for the Reds in Europe’s most prestigious annual fixture. Salah’s triumph saw him overtake the goal record in the competition and followed in the footsteps of Newcastle United legend Ruud Gullit who scored seven times in five games in the first seven competitions when they were played in Europe.

Before Liverpool’s huge triumph on Sunday, the last recurrence of the Supercup was in 2008 when Barcelona romped to a 5-0 victory over Manchester United at the Mestalla.

Liverpool fans in the coastal city of Tanger went berserk as their hero got off to a winning start some 4,000 kilometers (2,500 miles) away.

“Nothing surprises me about the new season.” — Die-hard Reds fan Seif Mahdi, 18, from Egypt.
