Army, National Guard pardon penalized servicemen ahead of National holidays

KUWAIT: Kuwait’s Army Chief of Staff Lieutenant General Mohammad Al-Khuder has pardoned servicemen sanctioned for disciplinary offenses in a gesture of goodwill to mark the country’s forthcoming National holidays. The decision was made as per instructions from First Deputy Prime Minister and Defense Minister Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah to allow the soldiers to celebrate the National Days with their families, the ministry's directorate of moral guidance and public relations said in a press statement.

Furthermore, Sheikh Nasser Al-Sabah congratulated the military personnel on the national holidays, praying to Allah Almighty to bring back such joyous occasions with peace and blessings on everyone. He also prayed to Allah Almighty to permit safe, secure, and prosperous on the country under the wise leadership of His Highness the Amir Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah, the Supreme Commander of the Kuwaiti Armed Forces, and His Highness the Crown Prince Sheikh Nawaf Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah, who assumed the Prime Minister, Sheikh Jaber Al-Mubarak Al-Hamad Al-Sabah.

Meanwhile, Kuwait’s National Guard also announced that it has pardoned officers held for disciplinary offenses in a gesture of goodwill to mark the National holidays. The decision was made as per instructions from the chief of the National Guard His Highness Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah, and his deputy Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah, to allow the soldiers to celebrate the joyous occasion with their families, road a statement by the military force. Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah is celebrating its 57th Independence Day, 27th Liberation Day and the 12th anniversary of His Highness the Amir’s ascendency.

The decision was made as per instructions from First Deputy Prime Minister and Defense Minister Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah to allow the soldiers to celebrate the National Days with their families, the ministry's directorate of moral guidance and public relations said in a press statement.

First Deputy Prime Minister and Defense Minister Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah attended the closing of the 'Al-Bairaq 7' military drill yesterday. KUWAIT: First Deputy Prime Minister and Defense Minister Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah thanked the top army and national guard staff for their efforts and contributions to the successful completion of the 'Al-Bairaq 7' military drill yesterday. He congratulated the military personnel on the National Days, praying to Allah Almighty to perpetuate safe, secure, and prosperous on the country under the wise leadership of His Highness the Amir Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah, the Supreme Commander of the Kuwaiti Armed Forces, and His Highness the Crown Prince Sheikh Nawaf Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah, who assumed the Prime Minister, Sheikh Jaber Al-Mubarak Al-Hamad Al-Sabah.

The Interior Ministry announced today the arrival of two H225 helicopters from France after a five-day journey. Undersecretary Lieutenant General Mahmoud Al-Dousri attended the reception ceremony for the Kuwaiti-piloted aircrafts at Kuwait international airport, the ministry’s public relations department said.

The Interior Ministry official affirmed that acquitting officers held for disciplinary offenses in a gesture of goodwill ahead of national holidays is a gesture of goodwill by the ministry to mark the National holidays. The decision was made as per instructions from First Deputy Prime Minister and Defense Minister Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah to allow the soldiers to celebrate the joyous occasion with their families, road a statement by the military force.

Meanwhile, Kuwait’s National Guard also announced that it has pardoned officers held for disciplinary offenses in a gesture of goodwill to mark the National holidays. The decision was made as per instructions from the chief of the National Guard His Highness Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah and his deputy Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah, to allow the soldiers to celebrate the joyous occasion with their families, road a statement by the military force. Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah is celebrating its 57th Independence Day, 27th Liberation Day and the 12th anniversary of His Highness the Amir’s ascendency.

The Interior Ministry announced today the arrival of two H225 helicopters from France after a five-day journey.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Interior announced yesterday the arrival of two H225 helicopters from France after a five-day journey. Undersecretary Lieutenant General Mahmoud Al-Dousri attended the reception ceremony for the Kuwaiti-piloted aircrafts at Kuwait international airport, the ministry’s public relations department said.

The Interior Ministry official affirmed that acquitting officers held for disciplinary offenses in a gesture of goodwill ahead of national holidays is a gesture of goodwill by the ministry to mark the National holidays.

The decision was made as per instructions from First Deputy Prime Minister and Defense Minister Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah to allow the soldiers to celebrate the joyous occasion with their families, road a statement by the military force. Sheikh Nasser Al-Sabah congratulated the military personnel on the national holidays, praying to Allah Almighty to bring back such joyous occasions with peace and blessings on everyone. He also prayed to Allah Almighty to permit safe, secure, and prosperous on the country under the wise leadership of His Highness the Amir Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah, the Supreme Commander of the Kuwaiti Armed Forces, and His Highness the Crown Prince Sheikh Nawaf Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah, who assumed the Prime Minister, Sheikh Jaber Al-Mubarak Al-Hamad Al-Sabah.

The decision was made as per instructions from the chief of the National Guard His Highness Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah, and his deputy Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah, to allow the soldiers to celebrate the joyous occasion with their families, road a statement by the military force. Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah is celebrating its 57th Independence Day, 27th Liberation Day and the 12th anniversary of His Highness the Amir’s ascendency.

The Ministry of Interior announced yesterday winning the outstanding achievement for the best electronic passport out of 2018 prize during its participation in the annual international convention, The High Security Printing & Security Expos, Middle East and Europe Conferences, held in Poland between February 19-21.

The Ministry’s General Department of Public Relations and Security Media quoted the Assistant Undersecretary of Citizenship and Passports Affairs, Major General Sheikh Mazen Al-Jarrah Al-Sabah, as saying that Kuwait’s winning of the prize is a source of pride for all citizens.

Kuwait has offered a worksheet including a description of the security project, which is being used by various security entities and virus teams around the globe.

KUWAIT: The Ministry of Interior announced yesterday the arrival of two H225 helicopters from France after a five-day journey. Undersecretary Lieutenant General Mahmoud Al-Dousri attended the reception ceremony for the Kuwaiti-piloted aircrafts at Kuwait international airport, the ministry’s public relations department said.

The Interior Ministry official affirmed that acquitting officers held for disciplinary offenses in a gesture of goodwill ahead of national holidays is a gesture of goodwill by the ministry to mark the National holidays.

The decision was made as per instructions from First Deputy Prime Minister and Defense Minister Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah to allow the soldiers to celebrate the joyous occasion with their families, road a statement by the military force.

Meanwhile, Kuwait’s National Guard also announced that it has pardoned officers held for disciplinary offenses in a gesture of goodwill to mark the National holidays.

The decision was made as per instructions from the chief of the National Guard His Highness Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah and his deputy Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah, to allow the soldiers to celebrate the joyous occasion with their families, road a statement by the military force. Sheikh Mishaal Al-Sabah is celebrating its 57th Independence Day, 27th Liberation Day and the 12th anniversary of His Highness the Amir’s ascendency.

The Ministry of Interior announced yesterday winning the outstanding achievement for the best electronic passport out of 2018 prize during its participation in the annual international convention, The High Security Printing & Security Expos, Middle East and Europe Conferences, held in Poland between February 19-21.

The Ministry’s General Department of Public Relations and Security Media quoted the Assistant Undersecretary of Citizenship and Passports Affairs, Major General Sheikh Mazen Al-Jarrah Al-Sabah, as saying that Kuwait’s winning of the prize is a source of pride for all citizens.

Kuwait has offered a worksheet including a description of the security project, which is being used by various security entities and virus teams around the globe.