Zain partners with H&S Store Summer Internship Program

Organized by Zain's Future University Network during summer vacation

KUWAIT: Zain, the leading digital service provider in Kuwait, announced its partnership with H&S Store Summer Internship Program for students organized by Zain's Future University Network (FUN) where the company hosted the orientation session at Zain Innovation Center (ZINC) in its main headquarters in Shuwaikh, in the aim to develop the students' skills at product marketing, customer service, smartphones maintenance, during the summer vacation. The program continues until August 31, 2019.

Zain's partnership with this program comes as part of the company's corporate sustainability and social responsibility strategy, which centers around the development of the education and youth sectors, especially in regards to nurturing and developing entrepreneurial skills within the youth. The company is keen to offer world-class specialized programs for those who are interested in developing their talents within all areas. Zain, being a leader in the Kuwaiti private sector, believes in the importance of enriching the talents of the community in which it operates by adopting such initiatives.

The company hosted the orientation session for H&S Store participants at Zain's Innovation Center (ZINC) at its main headquarters in Shuwaikh, where a large number of students attended the session organized by FUN program, in the aim to prepare the students after completing their studies to work as a part-time job during the summer vacation.

Zain's own Future University Network (FUN), is a sustainable youth tailored CSR program for students that bridges the gap between studies and a unique work experience at Zain. This is achieved by recruiting the youth as the brand's main ambassadors. The youth network initiative is considered the largest sustainable projects that Zain has been developing over the years since its first edition in 2008. It is a valuable opportunity for university students to benefit from the actual work experience to gain and develop the many skills and expertise that they need to enter the labor market both professionally and personally.

Zain is always keen on supporting a great number of educational initiatives and programs that caters to developing the youth's skills and talents, including the KON Social Entrepreneurship Program brought to Kuwait in collaboration with Babson College in Boston, considered the most prestigious entrepreneurship college in the United States and the number one institution in the world for entrepreneurship education, as well as the LOYAC AC Milan Soccer School, and more.

Zain affirms that it is committed to exerting more efforts into offering similar programs that enrich human resources development in all areas. The company will spare no efforts in making its capabilities and resources available as well as reinforce its collaboration with entities and organizations that provide such initiatives and actively develop Kuwaiti talents.

As a leading national company, Zain firmly believes in the advancement of young people's skills and capabilities, and looks to empower and prepare them for the important roles they will play in the further progress of the country.

H&S Store was established in 2011 in the aim to offer its customers a wide range of high quality products with a hassle-free shopping experience to insure customers satisfaction in Kuwait and throughout the GCC region, as well as providing a specialized maintenance and repair workshops for smart devices.

Kuwaiti caricaturists distinguished at regional level: Official

CAIRO: Head of the Kuwait Caricature Society Mohammad Thallab (center) speaks during the 'Caricature in Kuwait' seminar.

CAIRO: Head of the Kuwait Caricature Society Mohammad Thallab said Monday Kuwait caricaturists were distinguished at local, Gulf and Arab levels. Addressing the 'Caricature in Kuwait' seminar as part of the 6th International Caricature Forum in Cairo, Thallab spoke about the history of caricature in Kuwait where many Arab caricaturists worked in newspapers in the Arab Gulf country. Caricature in Kuwait, he added, was influenced by nationalism, the Palestinian cause, Arab struggle against the Israeli occupation, the Iraqi Invasion of Kuwait, in addition to local issues. Thallab said that the Kuwait Caricature Society was established in 2017 and had held many workshops and exhibitions to promote the art of caricature. The society, he went on, was keen on cooperating with the Ministry of Information, Ministry of State for Youth and the National Council for Culture, Art and Letters (NCCAL) to develop caricature in Kuwait. — KUNA
