

What's On

Egyptian band Masar Egbari performs in Al Shaheed Park

On their second visit to Kuwait with the beginning of the Arab Youth festival organized by LOYAC's Academy for Performance Arts (LAPA) in collaboration with Al Shaheed Park, the Egyptian Masar Egbari musical band recently enchanted the park audience with an outstanding performance. Band members expressed joy on performing in Kuwait for the second time noting that their first performance here was during the Qurain Cultural festival 2011. The band also announced launching its third album in its six year career which includes ten songs. Notably, Masar Egbari is an Egyptian band from Alexandria which plays a mixture of rock, jazz, blues and Egyptian heritage music. It includes Hani Al-Daqqaq, Ayman Mas'oud, Ahmed Hafez and Tamer Attallah.

The ambassador of the Public of Tajikistan Dr. Zubaydullo hosted a reception on the occasion of International Nauruz Day at the embassy. Higher officials, diplomats, Tajik students and media persons attended the event. — Photos by Joseph Shagra

Ambassador of Guyana to Kuwait Dr Shamir Ally invited Kuwait Times photographer Joseph Shagra to the embassy to bid him farewell, and honor him in recognition of his efforts throughout his long stay in Kuwait.

Jaber Al-Ali holds workshop on Philosophy

By Hassan Abdul Bari

Under auspices of the school director, Dr. Abdullah Al-Ajmi and the social studies supervisor, Ali Matalaqi, Jaber Al-Ali Secondary School for boys recently organized a workshop on 'Philosophy between Theory and Implementation', which was delivered by the head of the school's philosophy department, Salah Al-Shaikh. The workshop was attended by various teachers from the school and other schools at Mubarak Al-Kabeer Educational Area.

People celebrate the festival of colors (Holi) at Samiya Park, Kuwait. — Photos by Fouad Al-Shaikh