Croatians protest over 8
marchers. —AFP

were some of the banners carried by the Zagreb ishing a crime is a crime” and “Women against system” Demonstrations were held in 15 other cities. “Not punyear in their village outlying the coastal town of Zadar.

ed of gang-raping a teenager, saying the judiciary had Russians are expecting the state to do more to protect victims.

have dropped slightly to between 18 and 20 voter intentions, well ahead of the Five Star power grab for the capital. Eight special nations of women appealing to the European Court of domestic violence law and is one of a growing numtial human rights council, believes that thanks to a

Almost 60 percent believe the cases should be grading first-time battery from an offence punishable

Katya’s partner first started beating her when police would not take Katya’s complaints seriously.

After his arrest and a year in pre-trial detention, inauguration in previous administrations. “Hands off a 20 peso in January. The face-like attacks on metro trains.

: to ensure public order and peace leader of Italy’s far-right League party, Matteo Salvini speaks during a ral-for security after a day of violent that until now has been an anti-establishment the outcome in previous elections. “Another lost opportuin against Raggi earlier this month. He then made the League leader and his candidates

The state of emergency is initially for Following a protest action in the early 2000s. Those leftist governments Sitting on the region’s second-largest gas the current left-leaning government with Molotov cocktails. The ENEL tower defense. “The objective of this state of more to protest. It also ruled that Russia’s laws were

Almost 60 percent believe the cases should be

Katya’s partner first started beating her when

Katya’s partner first started beating her when She told them: “You friends should sort it out”.” Since she repeatedly slapped, beat her but also sexually abused their toddler son.

After his arrest and a year in pre-trial detention,

Almost 60 percent believe the cases should be

The state of emergency is initially for between 18 and 20

voter intentions, well ahead of the Five Star

power grab for the capital. Eight special

nations of women appealing to the European Court of

domestic violence law and is one of a growing num-

Grievances against the inaction of the police were also

The protests began as a protest against a draft bill that she hopes will be presented in the the key form of public transport in the climate will be a “priority” for senators this autumn.

It also finds that “Russia is more than ever a state of in Brazil, Argentina, Chile, and Ecuador. But the outcome in previous elections. “Another lost opportu-

the outcome in previous elections. “Another lost opportu-

Katya’s partner first started beating her when

After his arrest and a year in pre-trial detention,

Almost 60 percent believe the cases should be