From Bethlehem there will be a message of hope to Christmas tree in Manger Square. “This Christmas a corresponding surge in the number of pilgrims two decades, amid a sustained drop in violence and the town was celebrating its busiest festive season for 20 years, said Matthew Lynch, the British Consul-General in Jerusalem.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.”

BETHLEHEM, West Bank:

“Christmas will not be cancelled”, says Bethlehem

BETHLEHEM, West Bank: Bethlehem is Populate a town of 250,000 people in the West Bank, and a place where Christmas is synonymous with song and dance. The Christmas tree in Manger Square, where the Nativity scene is believed to have taken place, is a symbol of hope for the 1.4 million Palestinians living in the West Bank.

The newly-appointed Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem, Bechara Boutros Al-Rahi, has expressed his support for the Christmas tree. “Through joint action, and a commitment to leaving no one behind, we can achieve a better future,” he said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.

“I can’t stress enough how much the town has changed,” Lynch said.

The Christmas tree in Manger Square is a symbol of hope for the Palestinian people. It is a place where people come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to remember the struggles of the Palestinian people.